

Nine of ten union households agree the right to a private ballot protects workers from intimidation and coercion during union elections.

But some in the Senate want to take that right away.

They call it “card check,” but it’s really legalized coercion and intimidation of workers. And it’s wrong.

That’s why 75% of union households are less likely to support a Senator who votes to take private ballots away.*

Senators, don’t use your vote to take away theirs.
PLEASE VOTE TO PROTECT PRIVATE BALLOTS.
